

IN THE DRIVER'S SEAT

Fueling Economic Security & Opportunity for Women
2017 Emerging Issues Symposium
Friday, Oct. 27, 2017 Breakfast 7:30 a.m., Program 8-11 a.m.
Amon G. Carter Center at Lena Pope
3200 Sanguinet, Fort Worth, Texas 76107

Fourth Annual Emerging Issues Symposium Tackles Women's Economic Progress, Career Success

How do women find success as entrepreneurs, professionals, academics or policy makers? What is the formula for influencing policy and achieving personal goals? Learn how to foster opportunity and create progress. The annual conference features policymakers, business leaders, and nonprofit trailblazers. Gain valuable insight into the status of women's economic progress.

Cost is an affordable $40 for a half-day session. Register today.

More information available at womenspolicyforum.org.

7:30 a.m. Breakfast and Networking

8 a.m. Program Agenda

Welcome & Introductions

Pat Cheong, Women's Policy Forum

Road Map to Success: Where We Started, Where We Are and Where We're Headed

Moderator, Rose Bradshaw, North Texas Community Foundation

The Honorable Kay Granger, U.S. House of Representatives

The Honorable Betsy Price, Mayor of Fort Worth, Texas

Education & Childcare: Critical Building Blocks for Economic Success

Dena Jackson, Dallas Women's Foundation

C-Suite Perspectives

Moderator, Linda Garcia, ACH Child & Family Services

Marianne Auld, Kelly Hart

Kara Waddell, Child Care Associates

Thank you to our sponsors